Design a Badge

Design a Badge for Cubs and explain how you would earn it!

What does it look like?

There must be at least three things that you must do to earn this badge. What are they?

(Just think about the badgework you have done in the past and what sort of things you have had to do for those).
How Many?

Keep an eye outside to see how many of the following things you see on your trip!

- White Horses
- Aeroplanes
- Beetle Cars
- Bright Red Cars
- Horse Floats
- Broken Down Cars
- Bridges
- Trucks with Animals
- Petrol Stations
- Red Cows

The Trip Home

How was your camp?

What friends did you make?

What activities did you do that you really enjoyed?

What would you like to do again?

Did you meet someone from another country? What was their name and what country did they come from?

Who do you wish had come to the camp with you?
101 excuses why you didn’t finish your Travel Survival Book.

♦ I didn’t hear you say it had to be finished!

♦ I couldn’t write because my hand went to sleep.

♦ I am so smart I didn’t need to do it.

♦ I fell asleep on the toilet and forgot to do it.

♦ The bus was too bumpy.

♦ The Cub next to me threw up on it.

♦ I did it but it is at home.

♦ The Leaders wouldn’t stop snoring.

♦ The view was too good.

♦ I was kidnapped by aliens and they just bought me back in time to get off the bus.

♦ The dog buried it somewhere at Gilwell Park.

♦ I didn’t want to!

♦ I went shopping instead.

♦ It got lost on the commando course.
More Excuses!

♦ It got run over by a billy cart.

♦ I sent it to my penpal as a present.

♦ I gave it to mum and dad to do while I was away.

♦ I’m on holidays!

♦ I am saving up my energy for the activities.

♦ Someone borrowed it to copy the answers.

♦ The Leaders ate it.

♦ I used the paper to make paper aeroplanes.

♦ Everyone was talking and laughing and having fun and talking and laughing and eating and sleeping and laughing and stuff and it was just too noisy!

Well, that was not quite 101, but I bet you can think of a few more!
