The Federacion de Escultismo en Espana (The Scouting Federation in Spain) is made up of three separate associations. Although ostensibly a new Member of the World Organisation, the Federacion de Escultismo en Espana is actually just the new name for the Spanish Scout Movement which was founded in 1912 and was one of the Founder Members of the World Scout Conference in 1922. Operations ceased in 1938 according to the Ministerial Decree and although some Scout groups continued to operate, Scouting in Spain was clandestine until a few years ago when Scouts gradually began to appear in uniform and received news coverage for their activities.

Federacia Catalana d'Escoutisme i Guiatge (FCEG).

There are now three main Scout Associations in Spain;

Scouts de Espana (ASDE)

In November 1974 the three Associations formally established the Federacion de Escultismo en Espana (The Federation of Scouting in Spain). The Federation was officially recognised by the World Scout Conference in 1978.

There are 5 sections in The Scout Association of Spain:
