Self – Assessment Report

Self-assessment report
A self-assessment report provides you with the opportunity to reflect on your own skills and knowledge and provide your assessor with an indication of how familiar you are with the content of each module.
Please tick your level of experience in each of the following tasks:	I have performed these tasks:
	Frequently	Sometimes	Never
Planning for Camp
I can select campsites that minimise damage to the environment.
I can identify possible hazards and I know how to minimise these risks when camping.
I can plan suitable access to water, appropriate to the size of the group and location.
I know where to source information about camping equipment selection.
I know how to plan for activities in all weather conditions.

Safe Participant Camping

Recognition of Proficiency

I can demonstrate and explain the personal gear required for an overnight lightweight camp.
I know how to plan for activities in all weather conditions.
Camping
I can demonstrate and explain the appropriate measures for minimising and dealing with food waste, solid waste and human waste, to protect the environment while camping.
I can demonstrate the best layout for a campsite and explain my reasoning, including the type of ground, the position of trees, proximity to water, local fauna, shade and shelter.
I can cook a 3-course meal on camp.
I have attended at least 3 x 2 night Scouting camps.
Reviewing Camp
After camp I have identified possible improvements to the menu and equipment to better meet the needs of those on camp.
I have identified cultural, historical or environmental impacts in the activities I have been a part of, and have identified ways to lessen these impacts.
