

Milestones – Participate, Assist & Lead

In the Cub Scout Section, participate, assist and lead for the Milestones looks like this:

	Milestone 1	Milestone 2	Milestone 3
Participate	Attendance and involvement in the activities of the Unit.	Attendance and involvement in the activities of the Unit.	Attendance and involvement in the activities of the Unit.
Assist	Assist in planning, doing and reviewing a game.	Assist in planning, doing, and reviewing a small activity.	Assist in planning, doing, and reviewing a larger activity.
Lead	Lead a game and take a leading role during either planning or reviewing it.	Lead an activity or larger game and take a leading role during both planning and reviewing.	Lead the planning, doing and reviewing for a Section activity.

To achieve a particular Milestone, a Cub Scout will need to complete a number of participates, assists and leads as follows:

	PARTICIPATE	ASSIST	LEAD
Milestone 1	Participate in 6 activities from each Challenge Area	Assist in 2 or more activities across two or more Challenge Areas	Lead (at least) 1 Challenge Area activity
Milestone 2	Participate in 5 activities from each Challenge Area	Assist in 3 or more activities across two or more Challenge Areas	Lead 2 or more Challenges Area activities
Milestone 3	Participate in 4 activities from each Challenge Area	Assist in 4 or more activities from at least 2 Challenge Areas	Lead (at least) 4 Challenge Area activities

A Cub Scouts Milestone achievements can be recorded within their Record Book, Scouts | Terrain or the Participate, Assist & Lead recording chart.