

Certificate of Higher Adult Leadership 'Axe and Log'

The Certificate of Higher Adult Leadership program, also known as the 'Axe and Log', is the pinnacle of the Leader Wood Badge training and development program.

Once a Leader has achieved a Wood Badge, they may wish to consider achieving the Certificate of Higher Adult Leadership. The requirements to achieve it are –

- Hold a Wood Badge;
- Hold one of a Diploma of Leadership and Management (or Management as previously known), or a Diploma in Outdoor Leadership (or the earlier Outdoor Recreation), or a Diploma of Project Management;
- Complete the two advanced management program modules, through the completion of workbooks for –
 - o Scouting Proficiency Fundamentals; and
 - o Scouting Proficiency Programming.

Once assessed, and approved by the Branch lead for Adult Training and Development, and the National Commissioner for Adult Training and Development, the candidate will receive the Certificate of Higher Adult Leadership in the form of a certificate and a small 'Axe and Log' insignia, worn on the leather cord of the Wood Beads of the awardee.

If you are interested, please contact the State Commissioner, Adult Training & Development, at sc.training@scoutsvictoria.com.au

For assistance with completing the Diploma component, please contact sc.vet@scoutsvictoria.com.au
